CREATE YOUR CHAIR EXTRAORDINAIRE!

The empty chair is a framed absence intended as a reminder of the loss and the memories of someone loved and cherished who has departed. The vacancy is a tribute, a visual expression encapsulating the depth of grief when words fail to convey the magnitude of loss.

While they may be gone, the empty Chair reminds us that there remains a place in our lives. Symbolically, it serves as an invitation for a place to rest or contemplate. While a single chair represents being alone, two or more chairs represent being with others – friendship and companionship. They create the physical setting for communication and emotional connection.

If you would like to honour someone by creating a chair, please email your idea to Jenn Vos, admin@sp-rc.ca
